9.1 The Executive of the Association, with the exception of the Past-President, will be elected at the Annual General Meeting. The President of the Association will notify all Members at least two weeks prior to the AGM that there will be an election and that nominations are invited. Members must be nominated in writing to the President by one other Member of the Association. All advance nominations will be publicly announced to the Membership by the President at least 48 hours before the AGM. The President will present the list of all nominees to the Members at the AGM and will then invite further nominations from the floor. After nominations close, for Executive positions where there is only one nominee, those nominees will be acclaimed. If they wish, candidates for any Executive position may have up to five minutes to speak about their candidacy to the Membership at the

AGM.

- 9.2 The members of the Executive will be elected by secret ballot. There will be no voting by proxy. Members who have not voted for Executive positions at the annual general meeting will be allowed to vote between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. on the North Bay campus on the three consecutive working days after the day of the AGM. Provision will be made to accept e-mail ballots from 9:00 a.m. on the first day of voting to 4:00 p.m. on the final day of voting. The balloting will be conducted by and counted by three Members elected at the AGM who are not seeking election to the Executive. NUFA will announce to the Membership via e-mail the names of the candidates elected to the Executive.

- 10.3 In the event of the concurrent resignation of the entire Executive, a general meeting of the Association will be convened within one week by the Chair of the Constitution Committee, for the purpose of electing a new Executive.

11. Removal of Members of the Executive

- 11.1 Any member of the Executive will automatically be removed from office if that member has effectively abandoned his or her position by being absent for three consecutive meetings of the Executive. A member is not absent at a meeting if they have sent their regrets for that meeting to the President.

- 11.2 Any member of the Executive may be removed from office for reason of gross neglect of the duties specified in this Constitution.
- 11.3 Three members of the Executive can request a vote of non-confidence against another member or members of the Executive for reason of gross neglect of duties. Removal requires a two-thirds majority of those present and voting at the meeting.
- 11.4 Ten percent of the Members of the Association can request a vote of non-confidence against a member or members of the Executive for reason of gross neglect of duties. The request is sent to any member of the Executive who will request a special meeting of the Association within two weeks to deal with the matter. Voting will be by secret ballot. Removal requires a two-thirds majority of those present and voting at the meeting.

12. Meetings of the Association

“Reports from Executive Members”.

- 12.3 All meetings of the Association will be called by the President. Notice in writing of all meetings must be given to all Members of the Association at least seven days prior to the day of a meeting. Written notice sent to Members’ e-mail addresses at the University will be deemed to be adequate notice. The failure to give notice of any meeting to individual Members entitled to receive notice does not invalidate proceedings at that meeting as long as a majority of Members have received notice for the meeting in question.
- 12.4 The President must call a special meeting of the Association within two weeks of receiving a written request of not less than ten percent of the Members.
- 12.5 Decisions are made by majority vote of those in attendance. Voting at meetings of the Association will be done by show of hands, or by secret ballot at the request of one Member, or when required by the Constitution.
- 12.6 At all meetings of the Association, 25 Members will constitute a quorum. If a quorum is not present at the time stipulated for the beginning of a meeting, the Chair may delay the beginning of a meeting for no longer than one-half hour for the purpose of obtaining a quorum. 13.2 The financial statement and the proposed budget to be presented to the Annual General Meeting will be reviewed by the Executive and bear the signatures of the President, the Vice-President, and the Treasurer. The financial statement will include a schedule of the revenues and expenditures of the Association for the year, and a statement concerning the status and continuity of the reserve funds of the Association during that year.

14. Ratification of a Collective Agreement

14.1 The Executive will seek ratification of a collective agreement by secret ballot. Such ratification may take place only following a special meeting of the bargaining unit in which the proposed agreement has been discussed. Members of the bargaining unit must be given at least two days' notice of the special meeting. Only Members of the bargaining unit will be eligible to vote.

14.2 Members of the bargaining unit who have not voted at the special meeting will be allowed to vote between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. on the North Bay campus on the three consecutive working days after the day of the special meeting or by casting their vote electronically through the provided secure electronic platform during the three consecutive day voting period.

14.3 An agreement will be considered to be ratified if a majority of those voting approve.

15. Strike Action or Other Sanctions

15.1 The Executive will seek authorization by secret ballot for any strike action or other sanctions against the employer. Such authorization may take place only following a special meeting of the bargaining unit in which the matter has been discussed. Members of the bargaining unit must be given at least two days' notice of the special meeting. Only Members of the bargaining unit will be eligible to vote.

15.2 Members of the bargaining unit who have not voted at the special meeting will be allowed to vote between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. on the North Bay campus on the three consecutive working days after the day of the special meeting or by casting their vote electronically through the provided secure electronic platform during the three consecutive day voting period.

17. Standing and Special Committees of the Association and Non-Association Committees or Other Bodies

17.1 Standing Committees will be elected for a term of one year at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the Association, except where indicated by this Constitution. The process of nominations and elections to Committees will be per Article 9 on the Election of the Executive.

17.2 The President of the Association will notify all Members at least two weeks prior to the AGM that there will be an election for all Standing Committees and that nominations are invited. Members must be nominated in writing to the President by one other Member of the Association. All advance nominations will be publicly announced to the Membership by the President at least 48 hours before the AGM. The President will present the list of all nominees to the Members at the AGM and will then invite further nominations from the floor. After nominations close, if the number of nominees is equal to or less than the number of positions on a Committee, those nominees will be acclaimed to that Committee. If there are not enough nominees for a Committee, the President will solicit further nominees soon after the AGM until all positions have been filled. Vacancies on all Committees will be filled by appointment by the Executive as soon as possible.

17.3 Members of the Executive may not serve as members of Standing or Special Committees, except as specified in Article 18.

17.4 With the exception of the Collective Bargaining Committee and the Grievance Committee, Standing and Special Committees will elect a Chair at their first meeting. - 17.10 Members of Standing and Special Committees may be removed by following Articles 11.1 to 11.5, it being understood throughout that “Committee” will apply instead of “Executive”, and in Article 11.1 “Chair” will apply instead of “President”. By-Laws

By-Law #1 – Grievances

- 1.1 The Executive will determine the extent to which the Association will carry a grievance by a Member or a group of Members to the formal mediation and/or arbitration stage. In making their decision, the Executive will not act in a manner that is arbitrary, discriminatory, or in bad faith. The decision of the Executive is made by majority vote. The decision is final.
- 1.2 Any Member(s) may appear before the Executive to speak for support from the Association for their grievance.
- 1.3 If the Association gives financial support to Members(s), the Executive will determine whether or not it is able to provide legal counsel. Under normal circumstances, the Executive will not provide legal counsel. Should it agree to provide legal counsel, the Executive will be kept informed as to the progress and the costs of the action. If the Executive concludes that it would be justified in doing so, it may decide by majority vote to withdraw any further financial support.
- 1.4 The Grievance Officers will attempt to obtain a mutually agreeable solution to the complaint prior to filing a formal grievance. No grievance will proceed to mediation or arbitration until all efforts to solve the grievance have been exhausted and the grievance has been reviewed and approved for arbitration by the Executive. Such review should include a thorough analysis of the facts of the grievance, a consideration of all formal or informal offers to settle made by both parties to the grievance, a written or oral statement from the Association's legal counsel on the merits of the grievance, an estimate of the costs of the arbitration, and all other matters relevant to the continuing pursuit of the grievance.

- 1.5 Any current or past member of the Executive who feels they have undertaken substantial work for the Association in the role of grievance officer may apply to the Executive for a half-course release (3 credits/36 hours), to be paid for by the Association. In applying for the release, the Member must provide documentation to the Executive of the work they have undertaken on behalf of the Association's Members. This work may have been undertaken at any time over the previous three years from the date of the application. If granted, the course release must be taken within the following two years. An extension will be granted to this time limit only if the Dean refuses to permit the release to proceed or the Member is unable to use the release (for example, because he or she will be taking a sabbatical). The Member will be responsible for arranging the release with his or her Dean. Other than course release, Members will not receive remuneration for their service on the grievance committee. In no case will Members be paid for their service to the Association or for their service on the Grievance Committee (that is, the only form of remuneration is the course release), with the exception of CASBU Members, as they are ineligible for course release.
