

Policy on Statements about World Events

The NUFA Executive will vote on issuing a formal statement written by any Member of the Executive commenting on events anywhere in the world.

Any member of the Executive can draft such a statement or submit to the Executive such a statement drafted by any Member of NUFA.

Any statement on an event should try to connect the event to either labour rights or academia if possible, but a statement may be released without any such connection.